

Appointments & Service

| Outfit Year* | Position | Post | District | HBCA Reference |
|--|---------------------------------------|------|--------------|--|
| *An Outfit year ran from 1 June to 31 May | | | | |
| 1789-1791 | Labourer | | York Factory | A.30/4, fo. 77d-78; A.30/5, fo. 20d-21 |
| 1792 | Middleman | | York Inland | A.30/5, fo. 43d- 44 |
| 1793 | Bowsman - "Going up this year" | | York Inland | A.30/5, fo. 71d. - 72 |
| 1794 | Steersman | | York Inland | A.30/6, fo. 33d - 34 |
| 1795 | Bowsman - "Engaged for the Northward" | | York Inland | A.30/6, fo. 79d - 80 |

Not traced in "Lists of Servants" after 1795 although his contract did not expire until 1796 or 1797.
The family tradition had it that he became a Sea Captain.

See Richard Glover, ed., David Thompson's Narrative, 1784-1812, The Champlain Society, Vol. XL (1962), pp. xiv, xli-xlii.

Malcolm Ross's Reed Lake Journal for 1794 confirms that John Thompson was the brother of David Thompson. (B.178/a/1, fo. 11 & 18)

